WHY A-LEVEL RS?

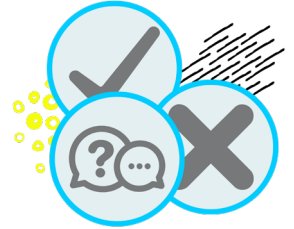

Humanity has been religious for its entire history.

The questions in this course have been important to our story for hundreds of thousands of years.

Here is your chance to engage with them, and offer your own perspective!

The great questions

Is morality real, fictional, or just our emotions?

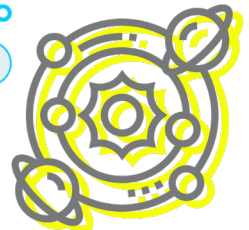

Where does knowledge come from?

Why do Religions believe what they do?

Why is there something rather than nothing?

Skills

Considering questions like whether there is a God, and what right and wrong truly are, A-level Religious Studies aims to ask about things that truly matter.

You will be expected to write essays, and read some of the great minds of the past.

You will gain expertise in:
